The Quillian Room

School Readiness: More Than Letters and Numbers

Presented by Bobbie Lencke

a 40+ year veteran of early childhood education

What does "readiness" really mean? So many parents and even preschool teachers miss the real understanding and awareness of how to identify and prepare the whole child's readiness to go to kindergarten. Too often the criteria is that a child is bright and knows his letters and numbers. But what is really needed for a child to experience success in school? Bobbie will give suggestions and list skills which promote readiness.

Testimonials from this seminar:

"Fantastic, useful, purposeful and right on time! That is how I describe your seminar. Thank you very much for providing this information to parents." ~Jodie Rung, Parent

"Bobbie Lencke's Kindergarten Readiness talk for our group of Westminster alumni was educational, insightful, and motivating. Her experiences in the educational and admissions arenas coupled with her skills developed as a mother and grandmother have resulted in a unique and resourceful perspective. She provided countless realistic suggestions to help parents turn daily interactions with their children into teachable moments." ~Yancey McCollum, President of the Westminster Alumni Governing Board

"Bobbie Lencke is a dynamic and informative speaker. She truly understands early childhood development and provides practical, useful advice to parents and educators. She openly shares her years of experience as an educator, parent and grandparent. She is funny and honest as she shares her knowledge about what helps young children thrive socially, emotionally, and academically." ~Kelly Gfroerer, Ph.D., LPC Preschool Counselor at Holy Innocents' Episcopal School.
